ART QUEST

Artwork 1

ROOM ONE - Ziff gallery

Go and find 'THE SOGNEFJORD, NORWAY'
by ADELSTEEN NORMANN.

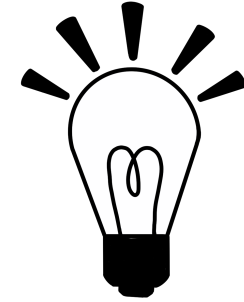

It is displayed in a room painted red.

This gallery is Victorian, and over a hundred years old.

Walk up to the painting slowly.

What do your footsteps sound like?

ROOM ONE

LET'S THINK

Looking closely at the painting.

Why has the artist made it so big?

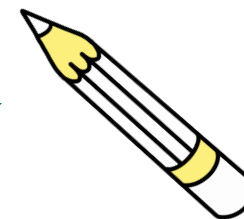

Could you fit into the picture?

What would you be doing?

ACTIVITY FOR HOME

Have fun at home and find out more about the painting. Download our colouring sheet inspired by this artwork:

Artwork 2

ROOM TWO - Small Lyons gallery

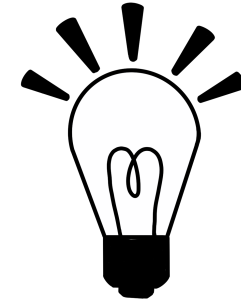

Go and find the print 'HIGO PROVINCE, GO-KANOSHO'
by UTAGAWA HIROSHIGE.

The artwork is displayed among many others picturing trees.

Using your imagination, put the gallery's olive tree in one of the artworks on its walls.

LET'S THINK

Look closely at the wood block print

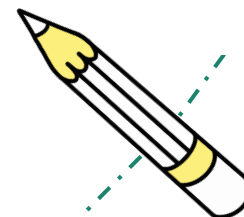

Where is the place the artist has pictured?

What could you hear as you cross the tree-bridge suspended over a ravine deep in the mountains?

ART QUEST

Artwork 3

ROOM THREE - Large Sculpture gallery

Your final challenge, find 'CONFIGURATION (PHIRA)'.

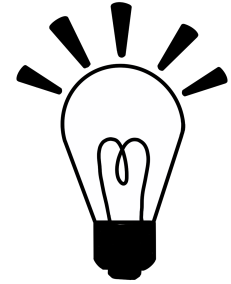

It was carved from wood by BARBARA HEPWORTH.

Find it in a room full of other 3D artworks.

Walk down the narrow corridor, notice all the small sculptures in glass cabinets.

Tell a friend if you see something you like.

LET'S THINK

Look closely at the sculpture.

Is it heavy or light, rough or smooth?

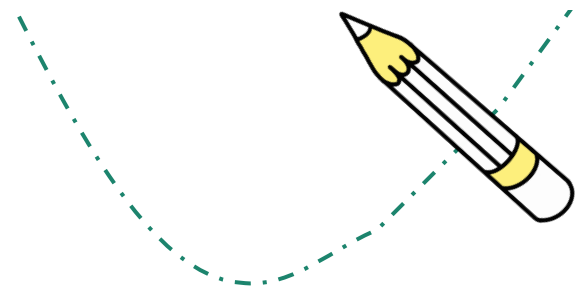

Notice the patterns in the wood.

Imagine how the wood have smelt as it was cut and shaped by the artist.

ACTIVITY FOR HOME

Have fun at home with our colouring sheet.
Photograph the patterns in the wood of the
