Opened in 2007, this state-of-the-art museum storage facility preserves, houses and cares for Leeds Museums and Galleries' diverse collections which date back to 1819. The amazing range of objects include an elephant skull, a medieval log boat, mummy bandages and meteorites – to name a few! There are also special collections of natural history, fine and decorative art and industrial history are designated as collections of national significance.

Special behind-the-scenes tours of the store can be arranged with staff free of charge on request, along with additional activities like treasure hunts to bring something different to your event.
