

Museums n'That Trailer Transcript

Meg: Ey 'up and welcome to Museums n'That, a new podcast from Leeds Museums & Galleries.

Museums attract passionate people like moths to a flame, and this podcast gets to the very heart of the things that make them tick, by asking the questions that you actually want to know.

Do you want to know how to taxidermy a caterpillar? Because same. Desperate to know about Bruce Springsteen's archive? Sure mate. Need to know what a World Cultures Curator orders at a takeaway? Almost definitely not, but you're going to find out anyway.

We're your hosts, Meg and Sara. You alright mate?

Sara: Yeah I'm alright, you alright?

Meg: Yeah, I'm alright. And in this first series, we pour the tea over topics that you never knew you needed to know about, by speaking to people across our 9 museums and galleries.

Sara: It's a bit like...

Rebecca: Any kind of bobbin-like structure that you can wind the intestines out of the caterpillar's anus with.

Meg: It's sometimes, kind of...

Chris: So I don't know what to do with it but I quite like a Mooli.

Meg and Sara on clip: Woah!

Sara: And there's always a lot of...

Errin: Chose Leeds.

Meg on clip: Greatest city in the world!

Errin: Greatest city in the world.

Meg: So if that's a bit of you, then subscribe and hang fire, for the first series of Museums n'That - launching soon from the greatest city in the world.
